

COLUMBIA STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Alumni News

September 2021

COLUMBIA STATE BREAKS GROUND ON WILLIAMSON CAMPUS ARTS AND TECHNOLOGY BUILDING

Columbia State Community College held a ceremony to celebrate the groundbreaking of the new Arts and Technology Building on the Williamson Campus alongside local and state legislators, community members, industry partners and donors. Full Story...

AROUND CAMPUS

COLUMBIA STATE HOLDS 2020-2021 CELEBRATION FOR GRADUATES

PRYOR ART GALLERY HOSTS "AN AWAKENING OF COLORS" FEATURING LOCAL ARTISTS

"Sunbather" by Bill Brinson

Columbia State Community College's Pryor Art Gallery will feature the artwork of local artists Dean Shelton, Darryl Steele and Bill Brinson in "An Awakening of Colors" exhibit. The exhibit will be open to the public from August 6 until October 8. Full Story...

2021 - 2022 FIRST FARMERS PERFORMANCE SERIES

COLUMBIA STATE STUDENT HEADS TO US MILITARY ACADEMY AT WEST POINT

Columbia State dual enrollment student Nicolas Matzirakis was recently appointed to the United States Military Academy at West Point. Full Story...

BARCLAY NAMED NEW WOMEN'S SOCCER COACH

BONITA PAYNE NAMED EDUCATOR OF THE YEAR BY THIMA

Columbia State Community College program director and instructor for health information technology Bonita Payne has been named the 2020-2021 Educator and Mentor of the Year by the Tennessee Health Information Management Association. Full Story...

BE A PART OF THE ALUMNI SUCCESS PROJECT

JOHNNY WYATT NAMED MAXINE SMITH FELLOW

Dr. Johnny Wyatt, Columbia State coordinator for the Office of College Success Advisors, is among 21 faculty and staff members from colleges and universities across Tennessee selected to participate in the 2021-22 Class of the Maxine Smith Fellows program. Full Story...

